

Indigenous Facilitator

Extended Deadline: Friday, September 13, 2019, 6:00PM

Overview	The role of the Facilitator is to ensure the rights of the community are being respected and any commitments made to communities by the Project are being delivered on in terms of environmental and cultural significance. The Indigenous Facilitator and NextBridge will draft and implement an Indigenous Facilitation Plan that will include the work fronts or areas they wish to engage on; the communication protocol to be notified of upcoming work; the requirements needed for the Indigenous Facilitator to gain access to the worksite; the communication expectations between the Indigenous Facilitator, Valard, the host community and NextBridge; and other expectations as discussed. The Indigenous Facilitator will liaise with NextBridge on any outstanding issues or concerns raised by their observations in the field; they will attend issues resolution meetings, committees (i.e. ACAB) and collaborate on resolution and communicate back to their Indigenous Communities about progress on resolution. The Facilitator will also liaise with Leadership to ensure the rights and interests of the community are being respected. The successful applicant will be required to attend training in Thunder Bay on September 11, 2019. All expenses will be covered.
Location and Schedule	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Immediately to approximately October 2021 • Within approximately 100 km radius of Michipicoten First Nation or in sites with specific or cultural significance.
Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employed by Supercom Industries, the successful applicant will represent the interests of Michipicoten First Nation (MFN) during the construction phase of the NextBridge East-West Tie. • Develop a Facilitation Plan in collaboration with NextBridge. NextBridge will provide general outline of key items to include in a Plan. • Implement the Plan in collaboration with NextBridge and the General Contractor.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ask questions to the Environmental Inspector and/or Construction Crew Lead to gain a better understanding of environmental mitigation techniques. • Document observations, questions and issues. • Send summary observations to MFN, Indigenous Facilitator Coordinator and copy NextBridge. • Attend Aboriginal Community Advisory Board (ACAB) or other information sharing and issues resolution committee meetings, as required, to provide observations and recommendations for further mitigation. • Identify potential and known traditional lands, cultural heritage and natural environment.
Desired Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work experience in the field of environmental monitoring at construction sites an asset. • Practical experience with collecting and documenting cultural heritage and traditional land data would be an asset. • Demonstrated involvement in environmental stewardship would be an asset. • Knowledge of Michipicoten First Nation’s values on the landscape is an asset.
Equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal Protective Equipment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Hard Hat ○ Gloves ○ Steel toed safety boots ○ High visibility vest ○ Safety glasses • Has access to reliable personal transportation from home to the worksite (approximately 100km radius)
Salary and Hours	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full-time, $20/hour. 5 days per week. Maximum 40 hours per week. • During the construction phase of the East-West Tie Project. • See Project Expense claim form for expense rates and categories.
Apply	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resumes must be received by Friday, September 13th, 2019 at 6:00PM. Late submissions may not be considered. Only candidates considered for an interview will be contacted. • Send resume and inquiries to Aaron Bumstead, Director of Lands and Economic Development for consideration: email: a.bumstead@michipicoten.com phone: (705) 856-1993 ext. 221 fax: (705) 856-1642